FRIDAY NOVEMBER 18, 1910.

Negro History.

The Nashville Globe will undertake to give to the world a history of the Negroes of Tennessee. We do not make this statement because we believe we know more about the Negroes of this state than others, but because we feel that such a history should be given to the world, and at a time while there are men and women living who can aid in such a work. We will state our plans more fully in subsequent issues.

Cheaper Meat.

By despatches from the packing house centers it is gleaned that the price of meats will be some less for a few days at least. This information will be good news to the American people.

Several reasons have been advanced as the cause of the slump, but the most absurd is that it is due to the democratic victory at the polls on the eighth. Prices of meat have been too high for several months, and the inability of the people to pay these fancy prices compelled the packing houses to reduce the cost.

State Normal.

The State Board of Education has again deferred action on the Normal School location. It is indeed unfortunate that the matter was deferred. There were only two counties in the race, Hamilton and Davidson, and while a central location is the most desirable, if we are to have but one school, on the other hand the counties all over the state were invited in the contest. Hamilton County has won, and we do not see how the board can justly give the school to another county.

The people are more interested in the establishment of the school than they are in its location. They want to know that the carpenters and the masons, and the plumber, and the painter are at work on the building. Wherever it is located the Negroes of Tennessee will send their children to it. The present administration would please the Negroes of Tennessee if they would settle this school matter now.

The opportunities to do business are numerous to the young Negro men of Nashville if they could see them. A business league could do a great good in this respect.

Senator Taylor did not win the governorship, but he achieved a greater victory in that he, to a large degree, harmonized the democratic party.

WORLD-WIDE TRADE IN DOLLS.

There is no business firm in Nashville, unless it is possibly the two big denominational publishing houses, that is at this season of the year receiving a more varied lot of orders coming from every part of the known world than the National Negro Doll Company. It was stated by the manager that his orders showed by the various states, cities and even foreign countries, from which they came, that the Negro had practically decided the problem of selecting toys for his children. He said that last year he had orders from Central America, South America, Canada, and even from Africa; while in the United States there was not a state in the union that was not represented on his order book. The demand this year, said the manager, is far in excess of what it has ever been. He has just sent out samples to many newspapers in various parts of the country that had written asking for descriptions of the dolls. One of these samples was secured by a Globe reporter. It is a very unique specimen which, all in all, makes the nearest approach to a high-class toy to be used for the children. Not only during the holiday season, but throughout the year the demand for these dolls is enormous. The Doll Company is making constant sales.

ST. PAUL REVIVAL.

Mrs. Elizabeth L. Howard, of Des Moines, Iowa, who is conducting a great revival at St. Paul, is drawing hundreds of people from all parts of the city. She has held meetings in all of the large cities and has won thousands of souls to Christ. She will preach next Sunday and will conduct the meetings every night next week.

Mrs. James H. Rachel, the wife of Dr. Rachel, a graduate of Meharry Medical College, is being royally entertained by her friends and acquaintances. Nashville being her home, she is meeting a most cordial welcome.

MRS. SHOOK AND MRS. SUGGS IN NASHVILLE.

Mrs. Shook and Mrs. Suggs were in Nashville last week on account of the death of their relative, Miss Lucy Shook. Miss Shook died rather unexpectedly on Nov. 2, 1910, at Florence, Ala., the home of Mrs. Suggs. All of her friends mourn her loss.

Mrs. Shook is an old resident of Nashville, but now resides in Cleveland, while Mrs. Suggs is a music teacher of Burrell Normal.

They passed three or four days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hodgkins, while transacting the business of Miss Shook. All their old friends heartily welcomed them back and made their stay very pleasant.

MURFREESBORO NOTES.

Bethlehem Sunday School is good. We are trying to raise the standard to where it has never been before.

Sunday was our preaching day. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Butler was with us and preached a soul-stirring sermon. His text was "My Grace is sufficient for Thee," II Cor. 12:9. All who were present received the "showers of blessings" that fell from his lips. We all believe him to be a worthy and God-sent man. A very liberal collection was raised, after which we were dismissed.

Rev. Butler and Mr. Hilary Luper took dinner with Prof. Lawrence Woods and mother. He also visited the home of Mr. Joe Martin, where he spent the night and left early Monday morning for his home in Murfreesboro.

Miss Bulah Martin is visiting friends in Nashville, where she will be for several weeks.

We are now looking forward to Thanksgiving. We are expecting to have a grand time. We will have services at 11 o'clock. A splendid programme will be rendered in the afternoon under the management of Mr. Woods, assisted by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Butler.

DAYTON NOTES.

Mr. J. T. Thornton of Washington street, is suffering with sore throat.

Mrs. Mary Moore, one of our city teachers, was visiting in Chattanooga Sunday.

The A. M. E. Zion Church gave quite a successful concert Monday.

BECKWITH PASTOR RESIGNS.

Rev. G. Hill, has resigned the pastorate of the Rutland Baptist Church at Beckwith, Tenn., after thirteen years of continuous service. He takes this step on account of his advanced age, and will devote all of his time to the Cedar Grove Baptist Church at Lebanon, Tenn.

Sunday was a pathetic occasion to the members of the church when Rev. Hill preached his last sermon. He reviewed the work of thirteen years, and many were those who could not withhold the tears when they remembered the many difficulties they had gone through with their departing pastor.

He received a great many valuable presents consisting mostly of china ware.

Mr. Carter was attired in the apparel he wore twenty years ago; every article except his shoes; even the collar buttons and underwear being the same that he used when he first married.

Mrs. Carter was attired in a beautiful cream colored dress. The anniversary ceremony was performed by Dr. C. H. Clark, pastor of the Mt. EXCELSIOR CLUB.

The Negroes of Nashville can well be classed among the most progressive along athletic lines. There are men and women in this city who are constantly putting in operation enterprises that are conducted for the convenience and comfort of the people. An institution that takes its place in the front ranks of the places for pastime and amusement is the Excelsior Athletic Club. This club was incorporated under the laws of the state of Tennessee July 14th, 1909. The incorporators state that the object is to furnish a retreat for those who desire a place to spend their leisure hours, and also where the members can entertain their friends when they visit the city, and especially when the stay is of short duration.

The club is located in the Boyd Building on Cedar street. A few nights ago a Globe representative was shown through the place, and it was with much surprise that the eyes beheld the beautiful furnishings of the reception parlor. A large crowd was present, but everything was being conducted in the most orderly manner. The furniture of the Excelsior Club is of the finest hardwood, highly polished and decorated, and was installed at a cost of several hundred dollars. Every member must have an admission card, which is presented at the door on all occasions and the rules of the club state that if any person not a member obtains admission with a card not belonging to them they will, upon detection, be ordered out, and if necessary arrested for trespassing.

Mr. Hugh Box is president and manager and Mr. Chris Erwin is assistant manager. Mr. Albert Watkins is the principal owner.

THIS THE REASON.

Chicago, November 16.—Government prosecutors moved to-day to prevent indicted Chicago packers getting their cases out of the hands of Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, when they filed an answer to the packers' charges that Judge Landis had acted as a special United States attorney-general against the packers in 1895.

Louis F. Swift, Edward Swift, Chas. H. Swift, Francis A. Fowler, Edward Tilden, J. Ogden Armour, Arthur Meaker, Thomas J. Connors, Edward Morris and Louis Herman, all of whom were indicted for conspiracy to violate the Sherman anti-trust law, are named in the answer.

The answer today admits that Judge Landis was appointed special assistant to the attorney-general of the United States to investigate an alleged beef combination in Chicago, but denies that he was directed in any way to investigate the so-called trust with reference to the particular defendants in this case.

The investigation at that time, according to the answer, was for the purpose of obtaining information concerning the acceptance of rebates from interstate carrier by the packing firms here and that Judge Landis' compensation was paid out of a special fund controlled by the interstate commerce commission.

Arguments will be heard by Judge Landis to-morrow morning.
